

Job title	Testing Director – International Jewelry Group
Job level	Director
Reports to	VP
Location	Bangkok, Thailand

Job Description

World-leading international jewelry company, with sales in more than 70 countries.

Key Responsibilities

Individual Accountabilities :

Testing Center of Expertise

- Act as the expert in jewellery and accessories testing to deliver to PANDORA and accredited laboratory standards for performance based and eventually chemical based testing capabilities of in-house laboratory; support other functions to define adequate testing methodologies and standards for their testing activities
- Deliver internal structure to facilitate all required regulatory and standardized testing required for the present and future growth opportunities
- Support other functions to improve their current testing procedures and techniques e.g. to reduce execution time, improve accuracy, reduce costs, improve quality, meet the quality standards, define standards

Testing Activities

- Conduct the following testing activities on request from other functions: wearing tests, material tests for metals, gemstones, leather, etc., functional product tests, consumer product tests, calibration of machines, equipment and procedures, testing of precious metal fineness
- When a new testing methodology is introduced, assign which function should conduct the procedure in consultation with other functions and based on the following criteria :
  - Testing activities with resources sharing potential across functions or high technical requirement
- Conduct the following testing activities on request from other functions: corrosion, drop, moisture, tarnishing, climate, viscosity, density, shrinkage, thermal, thermogravimetric,

thermal shock, rubbing, wearing, hardness, tape, tensile strength, elongation, expansion, sliding, compression, abrasion, curing time, solar simulation, colorimetric spectrographs, color fastness, slurry, functionality, material, consumer, atomic absorption spectroscopy, XRF thickness, X-ray testing, different chemical and physical tests

Key Shared Accountabilities :

Quality Assurance, Production, Product Development, Procurement, Sourcing

- Report issues in existing testing procedures
- Identify potential improvement areas to existing testing techniques
- When a new testing methodology is introduced, align with most relevant function to conduct the procedure moving forward
- Support Quality Assurance Division and Quality Assurance section of Product Development Division

Candidate Profile

- Director Level senior position from an accredited jewellery base laboratory and testing facility's and background
- Minimum 7-10 years working experience in jewellery testing lab or business function of regulatory and durability testing
- Strong and deep knowledge in jewellery techniques, materials and equipment testing and performance
- Strong experience with testing activities, chemical, physical including the required equipment to perform such tests
- Preferably experience with relevant testing techniques
- Leadership ability to lead testing team and interface with other functions

Contact

chris@jbmonster.com