

Job title	Business Intelligence Consultant
Location	Bangkok, Thailand

Company Description

Leading Transportation company in Southeast Asia

Duties and Responsibilities

- Build strong relationship with business stakeholders; monitor operational process and marketing campaigns; identify key areas for improvements that will create the most value to the organization
- Identifying issues, gathering information from various sources, analyzing data, interpreting patterns and trends, proposing solutions, and tracking initiatives with the purpose of generating insights and enhancing operational efficiency
- Translate data speak to human speak by effectively conceptualizing analysis to team members and business stakeholders
- Support various business functions with the maintenance of various management reports

Key Challenge

- A Bachelor's degree in engineering, computer science, or business-related fields
- Minimum 2-4 years of relevant working experience
- Passionate about solving problems – possesses a relentless need for investigation and data exploration
- Strong critical thinking and ability to frame issues logically
- Self-motivated, independent learner, and willing to share knowledge with team members
- Detail-oriented and efficient time manager in a dynamic and fast-paced working environment
- Ability to present on a complex subject clearly and coherently
- Experience working independently and in teams

Approved by:	(on behalf of CEO)
---------------------	--------------------