

Job title	Senior Business Analyst
Location	Bangkok, Thailand

Company Description

We are currently assisting the biggest international financial service company.

Job Purpose

The primary function of this role is providing a high level interface between our international clients, business leaders, and the team leaders on the ground responsible for delivering complex web based solutions.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Gather and analyze business requirements, translating them into functional / technical requirements that cover all business needs.
- Provide functional design (Application workflow, Screen mockup and Reports)
- Develop detailed software specifications ensuring that they respond to business needs and are able to be clearly understood by development teams.
- Develop documents to support the project (SRS, Work flows and User Manuals)
- Work with the test team to translate business requirements into test cases.
- Work with the Project Managers to ensure that the development meets the established scope and requirements.
- Provide support during the user acceptance test.
- Supervise Tests Scrip creation.
- Provide user training.

Candidate Profile

- Master's Degree or Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, Information Technology or related field.
- 3-5 years of experience in Software development (management, design, implementation, system analysis, service/support).
- Analytical & technically skilled - ability to understand how practical a solution is, with reference to the business requirements and propose different solutions where applicable.
- Knowledge about the Travel / Medical / Automotive Insurance Business will be an advantage.
- Knowledge about programming languages like J2EE & Java Technology, ASP.Net and PHP will be an advantage.
- Knowledge about Web Services will be an advantage, Web languages including HTML5, CSS and JavaScript, OOAD and OOP concepts Familiar with databases.
- Experience in Test Driven Development.

- Ability to work under pressure.
- Willing to work as a team.
- Must be self-motivated, proactive and have a positive working attitude.
- Good listening and communication skills (intermediary between business and technical solution suppliers), Good verbal and written communication skills in English.

Approved by:	(on behalf of CEO)
---------------------	--------------------