

Job title	CTO – Digital Loyalty Business
Reports to	CEO and works together with Chief Product Officer
Location	Jakarta, Indonesia

Company Description

Leading gift card and eLoyalty company based in Jakarta, Indonesia. We provide end-to-end services in loyalty and gift card industries, including gift card processing and distribution through our corporate sales and retail partners. We are the one stop solution for innovative gifting. We believe in going beyond rewards and building loyalty.

Job Purpose

To develop, lead and manage all commercial activities of the business.

To develop and implement and innovative, growth focused commercial strategy, focusing primarily on new product areas and emerging markets.

To ensure that profitable business growth is accelerated and that commercial success is achieved.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Manage a cross functional team of 20+ Software Developers and QA Engineers
- Work closely with the CEO and Chief Product to determine the direction of software development, solutions and product offerings
- Provide guidance, mentoring, and a path for growth within the engineering team
- Build platform not only software
- Responsible for the design, development and architecture of all major software solutions, including the establishment of company-wide software development best practices

Candidate Profile

- At least 8 years of professional software development
- At least 5 years of professional experience with Java, Node.js or other web platforms
- At least 5 years of experience with Web Applications
- At least 5 years of managing engineering teams
- Experienced in building and scaling payment processing system
- Bachelors in Computer Science or Computer Engineering

Approved by:	(on behalf of CEO)
---------------------	--------------------