

Senior Manager - Supply Chain and Operations for Resources Industry

Job Descriptions:

- Proactive leadership within a dedicated account team on a premier energy account
- Fostering and developing focus account client relationships within client business units
- Coordinating access to tenders, develop proposals and win engagements
- Acting as the country interface between Supply Chain and Operations and business's other consulting services
- Leading transformative consulting engagements across the business areas of Supply Chain and Operations.

Qualifications:

- Possess a recognised degree with a minimum 6- 10 years of consulting experience
- Showcase energy sector experience with preference given to oil & gas downstream.
- Ideally come from a business consulting background focused on operations and supply chain but will consider strong candidates from industry that have performed an internal consulting role within an energy company.
- Ideally Thai speaker
- Demonstrate a strong work ethic and team ethos that will proactively contribute business growth ambitions in Supply Chain and Operations
- Demonstrate strong interpersonal, organisational, presentation, analytical and report writing skills