Job title	Senior System Engineer
Location	Bangkok, Thailand

Job Purpose

As part of the Network & Infrastructure Department, the Infrastructure Engineer will be responsible of the management and maintenance of Linux/Windows server, Active Directory, VMware Infrastructure, Web servers and Network infrastructure.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Providing technical support and advice to the IT team in other locations.
- Responsible for designing and implementing Windows & Linux infrastructure solutions that support business critical applications in a large scale environment.
- Conduct security reviews of information system to ensure compliance with established policies and procedures.
- Analyzing, researching and evaluating new technology, software and recommending new developments that will enhance services.

Candidate Profile

- Experience with large scale environment that support mission critical services.
- 3-5 years experience in the IT infrastructure filed.
- Bachelor's degree or higher in Computer Science, Computer Engineer or Related fields.
- Experience with the Linux OS
- Knowledge of Web server technologies (VMWare, Apache, Tomcat, MySQL, PostgreSQL) is advantage.
- Able to work independently for significant periods of time.
- Good communication skill both Thai and English.

Approved by:	(on behalf of CEO)