Job title	Senior Software Engineer in Test
Location	Bangkok, Thailand

Company Description

We are currently assisting an international IT company.

Job Purpose

We are looking for a passionate and driven Software Engineers in Test to be part of our Test Engineering Team working on various International Web and mobile applications.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Develop test automation frameworks and tools that will help teams increase their delivery speed and quality.
- Collaborate with developers in defining how to best approach complex features, build them for test ability, and improve the quality of the code base through refactoring and increased test coverage by creating unit and integration tests.
- Contribute to and maintain a shared repository of test automation frameworks and tools.
- Setup and maintain continuous Integration tools / environment.

Candidate Profile

- Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, MIS, or a related field, or demonstrable work experience.
- Excellent testing skills.
- Excellent skills writing code in two or more languages such as C#, Java, JavaScript, Ruby, Python etc.
- Knowledgeable in various software design patterns.
- Experience writing code to automate testing tasks.
- Experience with multiple test automation tools/libraries.
- Experience building your own test automation frameworks/libraries is a plus.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Excellent English Speaking skills.
- 2+ years of commercial software testing experience of web, mobile, and desktop applications.
- Can understand and communicate complex designs & systems.
- Demonstrated ability to work with minimal technical and management guidance.

Approved by:	(on behalf of CEO)